MAJOR GENERAL
KEITH L. WARE
PUBLIC AFFAIRS
COMPETITION

SUBJECT: 2012 MG KEITH L. WARE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMPETITIONAdministrative updates and notes

A. Department of the Army point of contact is SFC Robert Couture at (703) 697-7590 and robert.a.couture.mil@mail.mil

B. Entries must be received at HQDA by FEBRUARY 14, 2013. Late submissions, direct submissions from subordinate units, installations and individuals, and submissions lacking required documentation will not be judged.

C. Submit all print entries electronically in ".pdf" format. Do not submit printed materials. Final broadcast submission guidance will be distributed to Army Command, Army Service Component Command and Direct Reporting Unit points of contact in January. All competitors will direct submission questions to the POC in their command hierarchy.

D. The entry form is available via the competition Web site at <http://www.army.mil/klw/>. Use the form for all print, broadcast and Community Relations award categories. Signatures are required. Electronic as well as handwritten signatures are welcome. Obtain signatures from leaders familiar with organizational Command Information operations and personnel conducting them. Examples include Public Affairs officers, PA officers in charge and CI chiefs but not officers commanding headquarters elements not directly involved in PA operations. All entry form must include a complete, verified, and official mailing address.

E. Submit Department of Defense, Defense Media Activity or joint command civilian and unit entries through DMA rather than DA competition channels. Soldiers serving with DMA organizations remain eligible for KLV competition individual categories and will submit through DMA Army channels.

F. The SGM Dawn Kilpatrick Memorial AUSA Scholarship is now included as special recognition award in the MG Keith L. Ware Public Affairs Competition program of record. The competition is open to all Active, Reserve and National Guard NCOs in the ranks of sergeant to sergeant major with a CMF 46 primary MOS. A special panel selected by the SGM of Army PA will judge all scholarship submissions. This change moves the submission deadline to 14 Feb 2013 with the results announced on 1 March 2013. The award will be presented at the AUSA Annual Meeting and Exposition in Washington, D.C. See Appendix C for details.

G. Only ACOMs, ASCCs, DRUs and other units listed in Appendix B are eligible to host a command-level competition and forward products direct to the MG Keith L. Ware Public Affairs Competition. All other units must submit entries to through their command hierarchy.

SUBJECT: 2012 MG KEITH L. WARE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMPETITION

Department of the Army
MG Keith L. Ware Public Affairs Competition
Standard Operating Procedure
Jan. 1, 2012 through Dec. 31, 2012

The MG Keith L. Ware Public Affairs Competition recognizes Soldiers and Department of the Army civilian employees for excellence in achieving the objectives of the Army Public Affairs program. The Secretary of the Army sponsors the program. The Office of the Chief of Public Affairs conducts the competition annually in order to recognize, cultivate and inspire excellence within the Army Public Affairs community.

This standard operating procedure aligns the KLV Competition as closely as possible with the annual Department of Defense Thomas Jefferson Awards Program, establishes competition criteria and provides the DA with guidance for recognizing the most notable work of its Public Affairs practitioners. The competition includes the Army's Community Relations Awards program.

Competition dates: Materials submitted for the competition must have run, aired or posted between Jan. 1, 2012 and Dec. 31, 2012.

I. Eligibility

A. This year's competition recognizes work in 24 print, 22 broadcast and three Community Relations categories.

B. The competition is designed for Career Management Field/Functional Area 46-series Soldiers and DA Public Affairs civilians. Stringers and broadcast volunteers may also enter in specified categories. All work must be published, broadcast or produced under the authority of Army Regulation 360-1, the Army Public Affairs Program, in order to compete. The only exception is content published under AR 25-30 in Soldiers Magazine, since it is produced for an Army audience and published under the direct supervision of the Army Chief of Public Affairs.

C. All nominees – stringer categories excepted – must work in the PA career field through the end of the contest calendar year (Dec. 31, 2012). PA professionals, in turn, are not eligible to compete in stringer categories. Individuals may not submit in stringer and regular PA categories during the same contest year. Personnel who obtain formal PA credentials during the competition year compete as PA professionals in non-stringer categories.

D. Soldiers must meet Army height and weight standards as outlined in AR 600-9 and reflect the Army Values in order to participate. Soldiers flagged at any point during the judging and presentation period are ineligible to receive awards.

E. Members of other services and civilians serving in DOD, DMA, and joint commands may not enter the KLV competition. DOD, DMA, and joint command civilian and unit products participate in the DMA, not the KLV, competition. Army personnel serving on staffs of unified and specified command publications and broadcasts as well as DMA joint-service publications and broadcasts remain eligible for competition in all individual categories.

SUBJECT: 2012 MG KEITH L. WARE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMPETITION

F. Contractors may compete as part of production teams (as members of a newspaper staff, for instance) in unit categories but cannot compete in individual categories or receive recognition through awards or certificates. Do not list them as “significant contributors” on entry forms. Contractors cannot compete in stringer categories.

G. Personnel assigned to Stars & Stripes are ineligible for the K LW competition. However, work produced in the contest year prior to or following a Stars & Stripes assignment remains eligible.

H. Army Reserve, National Guard and Reserve Officer Training Corps personnel are eligible to compete in all categories provided they meet category qualifications.

- (1) Forward Army Reserve entries to Mr. Byron B. Martin of U.S. Army Reserve Command. Mr. Martin can be reached at byron.martin@us.army.mil and byron.martin@usar.army.mil or (910) 570-8152.
- (2) Forward National Guard entries to Major Gary Arasin of the National Guard Bureau. Maj Arasin can be reached at gary.e.arasin.mil@mail.mil or (703) 607-2631.
- (3) Forward ROTC entries to Mr. Steve Arel of Cadet Command. Mr. Arel can be reached at steve.arel@usacc.army.mil or (502) 624-1842.

I. Korean Augmentation to the U.S. Army personnel may compete as stringers and teammates in unit categories but not in individual categories reserved for U.S. Army PA professionals.

J. Personnel who transition during the contest year may submit work produced for a previous organization through their new command in individual categories. But each participant can submit through only one command or DRU.

K. Civilian enterprise guides and directories, yearbooks, cruise books and productions funded by non-appropriated funds are not eligible for entry in the print competition.

II. Awards

A. First, second and third-place awardees in each category receive plaques. Soldiers and Army civilians listed as significant contributors to publications and those receiving honorable mention receive certificates. All Journalists of the Year, Outstanding New Writer and “Rising Star” award recipients and the winner of the Kathy Canham-Ross award will receive trophies and certificates in an appropriate ceremony facilitated by DA Public Affairs representatives. OCPA’s Resource Management Division will facilitate funding of the awards.

B. OCPA will initiate submission of appropriate medals for recipients of Broadcast Journalist of the Year, Journalist of the Year, Outstanding New Writer, “Rising Star” and Kathy Canham-Ross awards. Military awardees normally receive the Army Commendation Medal. Civilian awardees receive the Commander’s Award for Civilian Service.

C. Recommenders can list a maximum of five individuals as “significant contributors” to potential unit awards on each entry form. These should be staff members who contributed significantly and consistently to the team enterprise. They receive certificates if the unit entry wins an award.

SUBJECT: 2012 MG KEITH L. WARE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMPETITIONIII. Entries and judging*A. Submissions

- (1) With the exception of FORSCOM, IMCOM, DMA, NGB and USARC, all ACOMs, ASCCs, and DRUs may submit one first-place entry from the field in each category directly to DA level. FORSCOM, IMCOM, DMA, NGB and USARC are authorized to submit more depending on category. See sections VI and VIII for details.
- (2) Include an annotated list of all entries in the DA-level competition with print and broadcast entry packages.
- (3) No entry can be submitted through two different commands.
- (4) Deployed National Guard and Army Reserve Soldiers should enter their individual submissions through their respective commands, not FORSCOM or USARCENT.
- (5) Submit DMA civilian and unit broadcast entries through DMA, not KLV, channels.

B. Preliminary Judging and forwarding of entries

- (1) All applicants submit entries through their ASCC, ACOM or DRU POCs. Entries are judged within their commands, and winning entries move on to the DA level. Only command POCs submit to DA. All entries must arrive to DA by Feb. 14, 2013.
- (2) Entries must be authorized and produced for Command Information purposes, and published, broadcast or posted during the contest time period. No part of any product entered may be entered in subsequent KLV competitions.
- (3) ACOM, ASCC and DRU POCs upload entries electronically in ".pdf" format. Files may not exceed 5 MB in size. OCPA will provide technical guidance, including electronic portal locations, directly to command POCs.
- (4) ACOM, ASCC and DRUs should judge internal contests according to the same procedures and criteria as DA. They're strongly encouraged to draw from the ranks of civilian media members and academia as well as senior PA personnel for judges.

C. Entry forms

- (1) Examples of correct entry forms and any other required supporting documents can be found on the micro site at <http://www.army.mil/klv/>.
- (2) All entries must use the official KLV entry form available in Appendix A of this document as well as <http://www.army.mil/klv/>. Responsibility for any errors resulting from the use of improper or outdated forms (such as incorrect plaques and certificates due to incomplete contact or personal data) rests with individuals, not DA or DOD competition managers.

SUBJECT: 2012 MG KEITH L. WARE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMPETITION

- (3) Names will appear on plaques and certificates as they appear on the entry forms. To avert errors, use the correct entry form, provide complete information, type out names and unit designations, and avoid organizational nicknames and acronyms.
- (4) DA contest facilitators will attempt to resolve administrative issues before disqualifying an entry. But ultimate responsibility rests with entrants, units and POCs. Address any issues as soon as possible. If DA representatives can't resolve an issue a week prior to judging, the entry faces almost certain disqualification.
- (5) Note responsibility for plaque, certificate and administrative errors resulting from late, incomplete or incorrect information provided by units or commands rests solely with the organizations and their headquarters. If they wish to produce new plaques reflecting more accurate or complete information they must do so at their own expense. DA will not initiate a new contract to produce updated materials for individuals, organizations or units. DA will facilitate the replacement of materials only when mistakes by OCPA personnel or the vendor resulted in the creation of inaccurate or defective products.

D. DA Judging Panel

- (1) Judges consist of distinguished CMF/FA 46 senior noncommissioned officers, officers and civilians in the Public Affairs career field, as well as civilian media professionals from private industry and academia, government employees and military retirees. Entries will be judged on overall professional excellence. Judges will score entries on a scale of one (lowest) through five (highest).
- (2) No ties are allowed; but judges may designate more than one honorable mention.
- (3) Judges may decide not to name a winner in a category if they decide no submission meets KLT standards for an award-winning entry.
- (4) Judges' decisions are reviewed by the Chief of Public Affairs, who retains discretion for final approval and authority for release of results and other contest information.
- (5) Judging criteria and DA grading sheets are also available on the KLT micro site at <http://www.army.mil/klt/>. Command POCs are encouraged to apply DA standards and judging criteria during their internal competitions.

E. Results

DA Public Affairs will announce competition winners as soon after the judging as possible. First place winners in categories aligned with the DOD's SOP represent the Army in the 2012 Thomas Jefferson Awards competition. DA Public Affairs will engage a vendor to produce certificates, plaques and trophies as appropriate. The vendor mails certificates and plaques to respective ACOM, ASCC and DRU POCs. The POCs in turn distribute the materials to the winners' units.

SUBJECT: 2012 MG KEITH L. WARE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMPETITIONIV. DA Community Relations Awards submission guidelines

The Community Relations Awards program recognizes outstanding achievements in the realm of Community Relations by Public Affairs professionals throughout the Army. All military and civilian participants in Army Public Affairs programs are eligible and encouraged to participate.

- (1) Submissions must include a KLV entry form and follow the procedures noted below.
- (2) OCPA contest facilitators established a folder within AKO to collect all Community Relations competition submissions. In the appropriate category folders, POCs should create a folder for each entry and name it with the POC's command. Place all relevant supporting materials in this folder and label each document according to function and the submission it supports. For example, a FORSCOM POC entering CPT Ben Pierce in Category A should create a folder named "FORSCOM-Pierce." The POC might name his documents "Pierce-Entry.pdf," "Pierce-Endorsement.pdf," "Pierce-Contents.pdf," "Pierce-Justification.pdf," "Pierce-Recommendation.pdf," "Pierce-Supporting1.pdf" and "Pierce-Supporting2.pdf." Do not submit unnamed materials along the lines of "doc1.pdf" under any circumstances.
- (3) Limit packets to 20 total printed pages of conventional type size (no smaller than 10 point). Include written synopses of broadcast coverage if necessary.
- (4) As the name implies, a "Special Event" is unique. Enter routine, steady state, recurring activities in Category B rather than C.

V. Community Relations categories. Submissions must include the noted materials.Category A: Individual Achievement

1. Name, position and duty description of the entrant.
2. Table of contents.
3. Letter of endorsement from unit or installation PAO.
4. Letter of endorsement from installation or major unit headquarters.
5. Summary of the entrant's role in the mission under consideration.
6. Planning: describe the individual's planning process, communication objectives, key findings and budgetary analysis as appropriate.
7. Execution: provide details on the individual's execution of mission(s).
8. Effectiveness: describe what the individual achieved. Concrete evidence of success and achievement of stated goals will strengthen the packet.
9. Overall value to the Army: describe the importance of the individual's work, how it benefitted the organization, the community and the Army, and how its costs compare with its benefits.
10. Entries may also be supported with internal and external media accounts of the individual's achievements, and relevant feedback from participants, leaders and impacted members of the community. Don't include routine administrative documents or slide shows. Summarize internal coordination if necessary and appropriate in the "Planning" and "Execution" sections.

SUBJECT: 2012 MG KEITH L. WARE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMPETITIONCategory B: Program

1. Name and description of the organization and program.
2. Table of contents.
3. Letter of endorsement from unit or installation PAO.
4. Letter of endorsement from installation or major unit headquarters.
5. Summary of the program's context and purpose.
6. Planning: describe the program organizers' planning process, communication objectives, key findings and budgetary analysis as appropriate.
7. Execution: provide details on the conduct of the program.
8. Effectiveness: describe what the program achieved. Concrete evidence of success and achievement of stated goals will strengthen the packet.
9. Overall value to the Army: describe the program's importance to the sponsoring organization, installation and community. Describe how it benefitted the Army and how its costs compare with its benefits.
10. Entries may also be supported with internal and external media accounts of the program's achievements, and relevant feedback from participants, leaders and impacted members of the community. Don't include routine administrative documents or slide shows. Summarize internal coordination if necessary and appropriate in the "Planning" and "Execution" sections.

Category C: Special Event

1. Name and description of the organization and event.
2. Table of contents.
3. Letter of endorsement from unit or installation PAO.
4. Letter of endorsement from installation or major unit headquarters.
5. Summary of the event's context and purpose.
6. Planning: describe the event organizers' planning process, communication objectives, key findings and budgetary analysis as appropriate.
7. Execution: provide details on the conduct of the event.
8. Effectiveness: describe what the event achieved. Concrete evidence of success and achievement of stated goals will strengthen the packet.
9. Overall value to the Army: describe the event's importance to the sponsoring organization, installation and community. Describe how it benefitted the Army and how its costs compare with its benefits.
10. Entries may also be supported with internal and external media accounts of the event's achievements, and relevant feedback from participants, leaders and impacted members of the community. Don't include routine administrative documents or slide shows. Summarize internal coordination if necessary and appropriate in the "Planning" and "Execution" sections.

Category D: Kathy Canham-Ross Award of Distinction

This award is presented to an Army individual or organization in recognition of extraordinary Community Relations contributions. The highest scoring entry in Categories A, B and C is named the year's recipient of the Kathy Canham-Ross Award of Distinction. Judges choose one of the deadlocked entries by name in the event of a tie. The award is named for Kathy Canham-Ross, a distinguished director of OCPA-Los Angeles who set an outstanding example to emulate throughout her 30 years as a PAO.

SUBJECT: 2012 MG KEITH L. WARE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMPETITIONVI. General print submission guidelines and judging standards*A. Submission guidelines

- (1) These guidelines apply to the individual writing, photography, Outstanding New Writer and Journalist of the Year categories.
- (2) Submit all print entries as a .pdf file of the entire publication or the entire page on which the relevant article(s) and photo(s) appeared. Do not delete anything.
- (3) Articles must include bylines. Articles with dual bylines are not eligible. If no byline appeared for mechanical reasons (design or layout decisions made outside the organization, for example) submit a certificate of authenticity from the responsible PAO attesting to the authorship of the nominee.
- (4) All entries must have been published in Command Information outlets except where otherwise cited under the provisions of AR 360-1.
- (5) No product may be entered in more than one category, except for Categories V, W and X (JOY and "Outstanding New Writer" categories).
- (6) With the exception of FORSCOM, IMCOM, NGB and USARC, all ACOMs, ASCCs, and DRUs may submit one first-place entry from the field in each print category directly to DA level. FORSCOM, IMCOM, NGB and USARC are authorized to submit up to three entries in each category.
- (7) Entries must be received at HQDA by Feb. 14, 2013. Late submissions, direct submissions from subordinate units, installations and individuals, and submissions lacking required documentation will not be judged.
- (8) Package all newspapers in a single .pdf document. Do not submit each page as a separate .pdf.
- (9) OCPA contest facilitators established a folder within AKO to collect all print competition submissions. In the appropriate category folders, POCs should create a folder for each entry and name it with the POC's command. Place all relevant supporting materials in this folder and label each document according to function and the submission it supports. For example, a POC entering the Fort Bragg Paraglide in Category A should create a folder named "IMCOM-Fort Bragg." The POC might name his documents "Paraglide-Entry.pdf," "Paraglide-Feb5.pdf," "Paraglide-June4.pdf" and "Paraglide-Mission.pdf." Similarly, an USARC POC entering SPC John Schmidt in Category Q should create a folder named "USARC-Schmidt." The POC might name the supporting documents "Schmidt-Entry.pdf," "Schmidt-Nomination.pdf," "Schmidt-Photo," "Schmidt-Biography.pdf," "Schmidt-Sample1.pdf," "Schmidt-Sample2.pdf," "Schmidt-Sample3.pdf," "Schmidt-Sample4.pdf" and "Schmidt-Sample5.pdf." Do not submit unnamed materials such as "document.pdf" under any circumstances.

SUBJECT: 2012 MG KEITH L. WARE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMPETITIONB. Judging Standards

Entries must meet the highest standards of production, execution and professional excellence, while contributing to the Command Information objectives of the Army. Entries will be judged for their technical excellence, creativity, originality and overall support of Army and Command Information themes and objectives.

VII. Print media categories

Category B: Tabloid-Format Newspapers (unit award) Newspapers smaller than metros and larger than newsletters.

Category C: Magazine-Format Publication (unit award) Publications designed and bound like magazines. Entries must meet the following industry-standard requirements: smaller-than-tabloid size; single-theme photo or art cover; saddle-stitched (stapled through the center from the back and clinched in the fold); and a table of contents on the inside.

Category D: Newsletter/Field Newspapers (unit award) This category recognizes units that publish newspapers under field conditions during operational and combat deployments. The headquarters presiding over the exercise or operation is the final authority on the entry forwarded to the DA. In the case of ongoing deployments, regional commands may evaluate as many rotational issues as they see fit in order to choose the best issue. Only one field newspaper in this category per regional command may be forwarded to the DA-level competition. Publications such as the special issues produced by Reserve Officer Training Corps units during Summer Camp and Army Reserve and National Guard publications produced during active duty training fall into this category.

Guidance for Categories A, B, C and D:

- (1) Entrants must submit two publications, the issue published in May 2012 and a second issue of the entrant's choice. Any issue that ran in 2012 qualifies. An electronic version of each entry must be submitted as a single .pdf file. Do not send hard copies.
- (2) Entrants also electronically submit a one-page internal information outline. This document must, at a minimum, describe audience demographics and strategies for providing pertinent information. The outline clarifies the purpose and scope of the publication. The information requirements for a recruiting battalion, for instance, differ greatly from the information needs of a maintenance depot manned primarily by DA civilians. See the KLV micro site at <http://www.army.mil/klw/> for an example.
- (3) Entries must be published under the provisions of AR 360-1 and conform to relevant policy guidance, masthead requirements and use of commercial copy, for example.
- (4) If the organization submitting an entry adheres to a local or special style guide or publication SOP, include it in the submission package. The document will serve only as a reference and will not be judged.

SUBJECT: 2012 MG KEITH L. WARE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMPETITION

- (5) Publications belong to the sponsoring regional command, even when that deployment is over. Units deployed with a stated return date must submit that field publication to the regional command they are or were supporting rather than their permanent regional command.
- (6) Submit a newspaper mission statement with the entry. This should not be a unit mission statement, but rather a dialogue written by the editor explaining information philosophy. See the K LW micro site at <http://www.army.mil/klw/> for an example.

Category E: Web-based Publication (unit award) An Internet or an intranet publication hosted on a military Internet domain (.mil) that presents news and information to a primarily internal audience.

- (1) Enter two issues. For the 2012 competition year, the mandatory issue month is May 2012. If no issue was published in that month, enter the issue published closest to May 2012. The second issue may be any edition posted during the program year. Electronic versions must be entered via FTP as .pdf files.
- (2) Entries must be an archival product, issue or edition – such as a newsletter, magazine or newspaper – designed natively for the web.

Category F: Outstanding Initiative in New Media (unit award) This category recognizes outstanding contributions in the realm of new media – outreach through social media sites such as YouTube, Flickr and Facebook, and other efforts to deliver the Army message through emerging media technology. Examples include launching a new community initiative via YouTube; starting a commander's blog; or using social networking sites such as Flickr and Facebook to achieve communication objectives.

- (1) Entries must include a background paper outlining how the new media initiative accomplished local installation strategic objectives. Ideally, entries should include short and long-term objectives, target audiences or communities, and if applicable, how the new media effort dovetailed with traditional media outreach. The background paper should also include the URL or Web address for the product.
- (2) Describe specific content available on that site. Example: if submitting a successfully produced Facebook "fan" page, note what content was offered on the site – videos, photos, particular messages – and if applicable, how the community responded (tags, links and page messages, for example).
- (3) All entries (as applicable) must be viewable via URL addresses. Entrants must provide relevant addresses, along with a screen shot of the site or product entered. Social media accounts and blogs must have a working URL address in order to be judged. Content posted and subsequently removed does not qualify.
- (4) All submissions should support local command initiatives and Army communications.
- (5) Entries must represent official command or unit content. Personal social networking sites are ineligible.

SUBJECT: 2012 MG KEITH L. WARE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMPETITION

Category G: Command Blog (unit award) This category includes “Web logs,” or “blogs,” designed to communicate Army themes, messages and other relevant information to on-line audiences.

- (1) Entries must include a background paper outlining how the blog accomplished local installation strategic objectives. Ideally, entries should include short and long-term objectives, target audiences or communities, and if applicable, how the new media effort dovetailed with traditional media outreach. The background paper should also include the URL or Web address for the product.
- (2) Entries must include three posts, each from a different month. The background paper should include URL/Web address for each site.
- (3) All entries (as applicable) must be viewable via URL addresses. Entrants must provide relevant addresses, along with a screen shot of the site or product entered. Social media accounts and blogs must have a working URL address in order to be judged. Content posted and subsequently removed does not qualify.
- (4) All submissions should support local command initiatives and Army communications.
- (5) Entries must represent official command or unit content. Personal blogs are ineligible.

Category H: Website (unit award) An organizational Internet or intranet site hosted on a DoD-authorized domain that presents news and information to a primarily internal audience.

- (1) Content for the website must be provided by DoD PA practitioners with overall management of the site and release authority residing within the organization.
- (2) The website must conform to DoD, DMA and service internal information, security review, and web instructions and regulations. Consult the site at <http://www.army.mil/create/> to ensure your website adheres to DA guidelines and standards. It is important that all Army organizations correctly display and represent the U.S. Army brand.
- (3) The website will be judged as it exists on the date the judging takes place.
- (4) Units must provide the publication URL and any necessary logon information. Simply provide links and any relevant admin information on the entry form. There’s no requirement or need to provide additional documents or files of any kind.

Category I: News Article (individual award) News article entries may be straight news or news features, but features should contain a strong news angle.

Category J: News Feature Article (individual award) News feature entries must include a relatively recent news peg and a focus maintained and supported in the lead, “nutgraph,” body and conclusion.

SUBJECT: 2012 MG KEITH L. WARE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMPETITION

Category K: Human Interest Feature Article (individual award) Human interest features must contain a lead, “nutgraph,” body and conclusion – but not a news peg.

Category L: Personality Feature Article (individual award) Personality features must focus on one aspect of an individual – hobby, lifestyle, characteristic, etc.

Category M: Commentary (individual award) This category includes editorials, opinion columns, and other materials built around observations and reflections.

Category N: Sports Article (individual award) Sports articles may include straight news sports stories or sports features, but features should contain a strong news angle.

Category O: Story Series (individual or unit award) Entries must include two or more feature or news analysis articles dealing with a common topic. The articles must be clearly identified in the original publication as parts of a defined series of articles that appeared sequentially in two or more editions of the publication. Entries follow the same specifications as provided for categories I through L, except that entries may also be submitted as a unit if more than one individual contributed to the series. Entrants must submit all stories in the series.

Additional specifications for Categories I, J, K, L, M, N and O

- (1) Submit a .pdf file of the entire page(s) the story ran.
- (2) Articles published in field newspapers may be submitted in individual categories. These individual entries are entered through their permanent regional command. For example, a National Guard Soldier contributing to a CENTCOM publication in Iraq or Afghanistan submits individual entries through the National Guard Bureau even if the unit entry went through CENTCOM.
- (3) Sports features are not eligible for Categories J, K and L (other features categories).

Category P: Photojournalism (individual award) Entries must include two or more photographs, captions and story by the same photojournalist – no dual credits. All elements are judged. No elements may be entered in another category (with the exception of JOY and Outstanding New Writer categories). Do not send original photographs.

Category Q: Photograph (individual award) Entries may consist of a single photograph supporting a story or a stand-alone photo. Photos extracted from a picture page, double-truck, calendar or front-page teaser box are not eligible. Include cutlines and catchlines accompanying the photograph; they're among the judging criteria.

Note: Military and civilian entrants compete separately in Categories I, J, K, L, M, N, O, P and Q. DA will recognize distinct slates of military and civilian winners in these categories. Army journalists are also encouraged to compete in the DoD Military Photographer of the Year competition under the Visual Information Awards Program. Contact the program manager at milphog@dinfos.osd.mil for more information. Consult the site at <http://events.dinfos.osd.mil/viap/> for rules and regulations concerning this program.

Category R: Picture Page (individual or unit award) This new category includes “double trucks” as well as single photo pages running in print or electronic publications. Entries must consist of designed pages – a series of linked images accessed through a Web site doesn’t qualify. Include all accompanying story text and cutline information. Unit entries may include materials from two or more contributors. This category ends at DA level.

Category S: Deployed Photograph (individual award) This new category consists of a single photograph supporting a story or a stand-alone photo taken “downrange” in support of a named overseas operation. Unit Public Affairs Representatives and unit stringers as well as PA personnel are eligible to compete in this category. The category ends at DA level.

Category T: Contribution by Stringer – Writing (individual award) Entries consist of one stringer story falling into any of the aforementioned writing categories.

Category U: Contribution by Stringer – Photojournalism (individual award) Entries must include two or more photographs, captions and story by the same stringer – no dual credits. All elements are judged. No elements may be entered in another category.

Category V: James P. Hunter Award for Outstanding New Writer (individual award)

The James P. Hunter Award for Outstanding New Writer recognizes excellence in Army journalism among enlisted Soldiers with 24 months or fewer in CMF 46. This one-time award is named in honor of SSG James P. Hunter, who died as he covered a combat patrol while serving with the 502nd Infantry Regiment, 2nd Brigade Combat Team, 101st Airborne Division in southern Afghanistan in 2010. Only Soldiers in the rank of staff sergeant and below on Jan. 1, 2013 are eligible for this award.

Category W: Paul D. Savanuck Military Print Journalist of the Year (individual award)

The Paul D. Savanuck Military Print Journalist of the Year award recognizes the Soldier-Journalist who best exemplifies excellence in Army print journalism. This one-time award is named in honor of SSG Paul D. Savanuck, who was killed in Vietnam in 1969 while serving with the Pacific Stars and Stripes. Only Soldiers in the rank of staff sergeant and below on Jan. 1, 2013 are eligible for this award.

Category X: Moss-Holland Civilian Print Journalist of the Year (individual award)

The Moss-Holland Civilian Journalist of the Year award recognizes outstanding print journalism among Army Public Affairs civilians. This one-time award is named in honor of John Moss and Peggy Holland, civilian journalists who worked for the Oklahoma City Recruiting Battalion and died during the 1995 bombing of the Murrah Federal Office Building in Oklahoma City. Only Army civilians in the GS-12/YA-02 and below on Jan. 1, 2013 are eligible for this award.

Additional specifications for Categories V, W and X

- (1) Competitors must be full-time practicing journalists contributing to a publication authorized under AR 360-1 through Dec. 31, 2012.
- (2) Individuals may win a journalist of the year category only once. They remain eligible to compete in other categories during subsequent competitions.

- (3) Individuals must be nominated by their PAO. Nomination letters must include verification that any nominated Soldier meets Army height and weight standards as prescribed in AR 600-9 and reflects the Army Core Values. Soldiers who do not meet these standards or are flagged at any time during the judging and award-presentation process are ineligible to receive an award. Nominees must be serving in the active-duty Army, Reserve or National Guard through Dec. 31, 2012.
- (4) Nominees must clearly exceed prescribed standards in all areas, including reporting and writing abilities, military bearing in the case of Soldiers, moral and ethical character, and conduct. Nomination letters must discuss the candidates in their totality, not simply their technical expertise.
- (5) Each entry must include the following:
 - a. A letter of nomination with regional command endorsement (see a relevant example via the Keith L. Ware AKO link at <http://www.army.mil/klw/>)
 - b. An official digital photo, head and waist-up, in “.jpg” format. Soldiers must wear dress uniforms (Army Service Uniforms or “Class As”) unless deployed. Deployed Soldiers may wear duty uniforms. Civilians must submit a head and shoulders color photo.
 - c. A one-page biography of the nominee written in third person, chronological order beginning with his or her current position and recent accomplishments.
 - d. Each entry must include five different examples of work by the nominee, including stories from at least three different writing categories. For example, a nomination packet might include two news stories, two features and one commentary.
 - e. Outstanding New Writer and JOY first-place winners receive trophies from OCPA during an appropriate ceremony typically but not always conducted during the year’s keystone branch event. OCPA also recommends the winners for awards commensurate with their achievements.

SUBJECT: 2012 MG KEITH L. WARE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMPETITIONVIII. General broadcast submission guidelines and judging standards*A. Submission guidelines

- (1) Submit entries in Quicktime, MP4 or Windows Media formats. Files cannot exceed 500 MB in size. Final submission guidance will be disseminated in January 2013.
- (2) The use of non-military facilities for production is authorized, provided eligible personnel conduct the production in accordance with Section III of this SOP.
- (3) Entrants must forward submissions through their appropriate ACOM, ASCC or DRU POCs for judging. DA does not accept direct submissions from subordinate units, installations or individuals.
- (4) No product may be entered in more than one category, except for Categories T, U and V (BJOY and "Rising Star" categories).
- (5) With the exception of FORSCOM, DMA, NGB and USARC, all ACOMs, ASCCs, and DRUs may submit one first-place entry from the field in each broadcast category directly to DA level. FORSCOM, DMA, NGB and USARC are authorized to submit up to three entries in each category.
- (6) Entries must be received at HQDA by Feb. 14, 2013. Late submissions, direct submissions from subordinate units, installations and individuals, and submissions lacking required documentation will not be judged.
- (7) Submission directions will be disseminated in January 2013 or earlier.
- (8) Each command must enclose a transmittal letter signed by the POC with its submission package. A sample transmittal letter is available on the KLV micro site, <http://www.army.mil/klw/>. The letter must include each entry's category, title and primary contributor. The command POC must write "no entry" next to any category without a submission. The transmittal letter must also identify the POC, and include his or her phone number and e-mail address. Entries unaccompanied by signed transmittal letters are disqualified.
- (9) Command POCs must ensure the official KLV entry form accompanies each product entered. They must also ensure any additional documentation required for each entry (font information, story leads or additional paperwork required for categories P, T, U and V for instance) accompanies the submission.
- (10) OCPA contest facilitators will establish an FTP site to collect all broadcast competition submissions. In the appropriate category folders, POCs should create a folder for each entry and name it with the POC's command. Place all relevant supporting materials in this folder and label each document according to function and the submission it supports. For example, a USARCENT POC entering CPL Walter O'Reilly in Category S should create a folder named "USARCENT-O'Reilly." The POC might name his documents "O'Reilly-Entry.pdf," "O'Reilly-Nom.pdf," "O'Reilly-Photo"

- (11) All entries that use commercial music must adhere to U.S. copyright laws. Such submissions must include written copyright authorization from the production company that generated the material. The same applies to commercially produced video and graphics. Entrees produced for DMA broadcasts and webcasts are an exception to this requirement since appropriate permission has already been granted. However, those entrees with commercial music must be submitted "as aired" on the original DMA broadcast/webcast and not altered in anyway except to adhere to KLV submission formats.

B. Audio submissions

- (1) Audio entries can be submitted via FTP.
- (2) Files may be created which either conform to the "Red Book" standard or contain digital media files for software playback. Digital media files should be .MP3 (not less than approximately 128 kbps).
- (3) Each audio entry must include the following elements, in order:
 - a) Audio slug. The audio slug includes the title of the entry, the name of the primary contributor, the target audience and total run time of the entry.
 - b) Two seconds of silence.
 - c) The entry.

C. Video submissions

- (1) Audio will be mixed down for all entries.
- (2) Each entry must have the following elements in order:
 - a) A 10-second slate, including the lead and tag for Categories J–L.
 - b) Five seconds of black.
 - c) The entry.
- (3) Entries should be "as aired" versions including required fonts and graphics. Add font information to the 10-second lead/tag slate for products in which the information no longer appears.
- (4) Preferred file format is Quicktime H.264, but Windows Media Video (WMV) 9 Advanced is acceptable. Video files can be Standard Definition or High Definition. SD should be 720 x 480 widescreen or standard. HD cannot exceed 1280 x 720.

SUBJECT: 2012 MG KEITH L. WARE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMPETITION

- a) For Quicktime H.264, chose a "medium" video compression quality. Audio can be MP3, WAV, or AAC with "Lossless" or "Uncompressed" quality.
- b) For Windows, use the Windows Media Video 9 Advanced codec. Choose a variable bit rate with "medium"
- (5) Television News Report, Television Feature Report and Television Sports Report (Categories J, K and L) entries should be "as aired" copies that include downstream fonts and graphics when possible.

D. Judging standards

Entries must meet the highest standards of production, execution and professional excellence, while contributing to the Command Information objectives of the Army. Entries will be judged for their technical excellence, creativity, originality and overall support of Army and Command Information themes and objectives.

IX. Broadcast categoriesCategory A: Radio Entertainment Program (individual award)

- (1) A special or regularly scheduled disc jockey program.
- (2) Entry will be telescoped to the disc-jockey's voice and only those elements that are unique to the program (air-checks), eliminating pre-produced spots, and non-local elements.
- (3) Entry must be less than 15 minutes in total length.

Category B: Radio Spot Production (individual award)

- (1) Enter one 30 second spot, identifying the target audience.
- (2) Spots promote an agency, facility, event or opportunity in the community (activities at the bowling alley, a blood drive or housing office hours of operation, for instance).

Category C: Radio News Report (individual award)

- (1) A news story on an event or mission, typically run at or near the top of the newscast.
- (2) Story lead-ins/tags must be included either on the entry form or on a separate sheet of paper. If the lead-ins/tags are provided on a separate sheet, include the category, title and name of the contributor on the entry form.
- (3) Do not include the anchor's lead-in/tag on the medium with the story.

SUBJECT: 2012 MG KEITH L. WARE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMPETITIONCategory D: Radio Features Report (individual award)

- (1) Story lead-ins/tags must be included either on the entry form or on a separate sheet of paper. If the lead-ins/tags are provided on a separate sheet, include the category, title and name of the contributor on the entry form.
- (2) Do not include the anchor's lead-in/tag on the medium with the story.

Category E: Radio Sports Report (individual award)

- (1) A news story related to any recreational, competitive sporting event with a military tie. This includes stories about competitive athletic events but not stories about physical fitness training and ceremonies associated with sporting events. A story about an intramural base softball game or combatives tournament qualifies, for instance, while a story about innovative PT techniques does not.
- (2) Story lead-ins/tags must be included either on the entry form or on a separate sheet of paper. If the lead-ins/tags are provided on a separate sheet, include the category, title and name of the contributor on the entry form.
- (3) Do not include the anchor's lead-in/tag on the medium with the story.

Category F: Radio Newscast (unit award)

- (1) Telescope out any non-news elements.
- (2) Telescope out any product not provided by a military source.

Category G: Radio Information Program (unit award)

- (1) An information based program covering a specific theme with a total air/run time of 5:00 minutes or longer. Examples include Commander's Call, Leadership Forum, magazine programs, travel, and "how to" programs, documentaries and features. This is not a newscast category.
- (2) If the program exceeds 15:00 minutes in total air/run time, telescope the submission to a 15 minute representative sample of the entire program.
- (3) Telescope out any product not provided by a military source.

Category H: Television Information Program (unit award)

- (1) An information-based program covering a specific theme with a total air/run time of 5:00 minutes or longer. Examples include Commander's Call, Leadership Forum, magazine programs, travel, and "how to" programs, documentaries and features. This is not a newscast category.
- (2) Commanders'/Captains' Calls and magazine programs must be limited to 15 minutes or less, representative of the program in its entirety. For example, a

Commander's Call program should be telescoped to include the best contiguous elements from the host, main speaker and callers. A year-end program should be telescoped to include the open, anchor leads/tags, and close. Documentary and feature pieces must be limited to 30 minutes or less.

- (3) Telescope out any product not provided by a military source.

Category I: Television Spot Production (individual award)

- (1) One 30-60 second spot.
- (2) Spots promote an agency, facility, event or opportunity in the community (activities at the bowling alley, a blood drive or housing office hours of operation, for instance).

Category J: Television News Report (individual award)

- (1) An event or mission-oriented news story that would run at or near the top of a newscast. The report must be produced in no more than two working days.
- (2) Story lead-ins/tags must be included either on the entry form or on a separate sheet of paper. If the lead-ins/tags are provided on a separate sheet, include the category, title and name of the contributor on the entry form.
- (3) Do not include the anchor's lead-in/tag on the medium with the story.

Category K: Television Feature Report (individual award)

- (1) A feature typically goes into greater depth and includes a human interest angle; story production is not limited to two working days.
- (2) The story must be 5:00 minutes or less in length.
- (3) Story lead-ins/tags must be included either on the entry form or on a separate sheet of paper. If the lead-ins/tags are provided on a separate sheet, include the category, title and name of the contributor on the entry form.
- (4) Do not include the anchor's lead-in/tag on the medium with the story.

Category L: Television Sports Report (individual award)

- (1) A news story related to any recreational, competitive sporting event with a military tie. This includes stories about competitive athletic events but not stories about physical fitness training and ceremonies associated with sporting events. A story about an intramural base softball game or "combatives" tournament qualifies, for instance, while a story about innovative PT techniques does not.
- (2) Story lead-ins/tags must be included either on the entry form or on a separate sheet of paper. If the lead-ins/tags are provided on a separate sheet, include the category, title and name of the contributor on the entry form.

SUBJECT: 2012 MG KEITH L. WARE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMPETITION

- (3) Do not include the anchor's lead-in/tag on the medium with the story.

Category M: Local Television Newscast (unit award)

- (1) An affiliate or installation newscast that targets a local audience.
- (2) Telescope out any product not provided by a military source.
- (3) The newscast must be at least 2:00 minutes in length.

Category N: Regional Television Newscast (unit award)

- (1) Entries must be regional (Afghanistan or Iraq, for example) or network in scope, and appropriate to their regional audience.
- (2) Telescope out any product not provided by a military source.
- (3) Newscast must be at least 2:00 minutes in length.

Category O: Television Newsbreak (individual award)

- (1) A stand-alone news or information element between 60 seconds and 2:00 minutes in length.
- (2) Telescope out any product not provided by a military source.

Category P: Command Information Campaign (unit award)

- (1) Entries must include a completed CI Plan entry form (See Appendix B: Entry Forms).
- (2) Entries consist of no more than 10 minutes of products supporting a specific local or regional Command Information campaign. Entries must reflect local capabilities: stations with television, radio, print and Web capabilities, for instance, should include campaign materials from all these media. Stations with only print and Web capabilities will necessarily send materials limited to those media.
- (3) Entries must include a two-page documentation package consisting of:
 - a) A background paper that identifies the individual or organization requesting the campaign, the campaign's internal information objective(s), the target audience, a summary of actions taken to meet campaign objectives, and a summary of the campaign's results. Include information on any other communication efforts undertaken in conjunction or cooperation with the campaign, such as those by a garrison Public Affairs, Chaplain's or Equal Opportunity office. Include the campaign start and end date (if applicable) on the history sheet.

- b) A broadcast/print and air/publication history sheet that includes both a list of elements produced for the campaign (spots, stories, electronic media products and special programs, for instance) and a brief air and publication history summary. Use two pages if necessary.
- (4) At least half of the campaign must have occurred during the contest year, though it may have started or concluded in another year. A safety campaign initiated in December of 2011 and progressing through the spring of 2012 is eligible; an education campaign launched in the fall of 2011 and ending in February 2012 is not.
- (5) Separate broadcast products with approximately three seconds of black. Do not include any other slates between examples.
- (6) Each broadcast submission must include a run sheet indicating title, length and type of product (spot, news, promo, etc.) for each example.
- (7) Each print product must include a history sheet outlining the title and type of product (news story, feature, commentary, etc.) for each example. The history sheet should explain the value of the product to the campaign and the reason for its selection.

Note: this is an exclusively broadcast category in the DoD level competition. KLV judges may recommend another entry represent the Army during the DoD competition if its broadcast content clearly surpasses that of the first place winner. A second place KLV winner with markedly superior broadcast products, for instance, could represent the Army at the DoD competition.

Category Q: Deployed Television News Report (Individual award)

- (1) A news story about an event/mission and is produced in no more than one day. The story can be no more than 2:00 minutes in length.
- (2) Entries are produced in a deployed environment under austere conditions (typically with a laptop video acquisition kit) and cover Soldiers and units performing operational missions "downrange."
- (3) Story lead-ins/tags must be included either on the entry form or on a separate sheet of paper. If the lead-ins/tags are provided on a separate sheet, include the category, title and name of the contributor on the entry form. If story font information does not appear in the entry, include it on the lead-in/tag sheet.
- (4) Do not include the anchor's lead-in/tag on the medium with the story.

Category R: Deployed Television Feature Report (individual award)

- (1) A feature story typically goes into greater in-depth and includes a strong human interest angle; story production is not limited to one day. The story must be 2:00 to 5:00 minutes in length.
- (2) Entries are produced in a deployed environment under austere conditions (typically with a laptop video acquisition kit) and cover Soldiers and units performing operational missions “downrange.”

- (3) Story lead-ins/tags must be included either on the entry form or on a separate sheet of paper. If the lead-ins/tags are provided on a separate sheet, include the category, title and name of the contributor on the entry form. If story font information does not appear in the entry, include it on the lead-in/tag sheet.
- (4) Do not include the anchor’s lead-in/tag on the medium with the story.

Category S: Deployed “B-Roll” Package (individual award)

- (1) A “B-Roll” package for a “downrange” event or mission produced in 5:00 hours or less; the package must include a proposed script.
- (2) Must be a separate “stand-alone” package created for purpose of export to external media for independent production, not a stripped-down version of a full story
- (3) The package must be 5:00 or less in length, with individual video clips typically ranging from :05 to :07 seconds in length. Judges will consider environmental conditions as they appraise footage; but clips should be well-composed, steady and compelling.
- (4) Entries are produced in a deployed environment under austere conditions (typically with a laptop video acquisition kit) and cover Soldiers and units performing operational missions “downrange.”
- (5) Include package information on the entry form or a separate sheet of paper. The information should describe the mission, its circumstances, its location and its significance to tactical and strategic theater objectives.

Note: Categories Q, R and S end at DA level

Category T: “Rising Star” Award for Outstanding New Broadcaster (individual award)

This one-time award recognizes excellence in Army broadcasting among enlisted Soldiers with 24 months or fewer in CMF 46. Only Soldiers in the rank of staff sergeant and below on Jan. 1, 2013 are eligible for this award.

Category U: John T. Anderson Military Broadcast Journalist of the Year (individual award) MSG John T. Anderson was captured while serving as noncommissioned officer-in-charge of an American Forces Radio and Television Service station at Hue, Vietnam. He was held as a prisoner of war from February 1968 to March 1973. He retired in August of that year after 26 years of active-duty service. MSG Anderson died April 1, 1988. This one-time award recognizes the CMF 46 Soldier who best exemplifies excellence in Army broadcasting.

Category V: Civilian Broadcast Journalist of the Year (individual award) This one-time award recognizes the Army civilian broadcast journalist who best exemplifies excellence in military broadcast journalism. Only Army civilians in the GS-12/YA-02 and below on Jan. 1, 2013 are eligible for this award.

SUBJECT: 2012 MG KEITH L. WARE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMPETITIONAdditional specifications for Categories T, U and V:

SGM Dawn Kilpatrick Memorial AUSA Scholarship

In 1999, the Army and the Association of the United States Army formed a partnership as a tribute to Sergeant Major Dawn Kilpatrick and her 20 years of service to this nation. She died at her home in Herndon, Va., May 23, 1999, after a two-year battle with cervical cancer and eight days after she retired. SGM Kilpatrick was laid to rest at Arlington National Cemetery on May 27, 1999.

The Office of the Chief of Public Affairs established an ongoing scholarship in her name—The SGM Dawn Kilpatrick Memorial AUSA Scholarship.

The scholarship is designed to allow mid-level and senior noncommissioned officers the opportunity to compete for an educational scholarship grant. This grant is intended to assist the NCO further their educational goals and give the Army a better-rounded "Total Soldier."

The criteria for this scholarship is for an NCO that best exemplifies the Army's vision and influences others in shaping future leaders while practicing excellent stewardship of the nation's most precious resource - our soldiers.

The SGM Dawn Kilpatrick Memorial AUSA Scholarship recipient will receive a $4,000.00 check for tuition assistance, books and associated fees connected with their educational choice.

To be eligible, the NCO's leadership must submit the nomination by the application deadline. Specific requirements: must be in the Active component, Army Reserve or Army National Guard; a CMF 46 sergeant to sergeant major with less than 18 years of active service; hold a primary MOS of 46Q, 46R or 46Z. In addition, the soldier must be in an indefinite status or have at least 3 years remaining in service upon receipt of the scholarship.

To compete for the SGM Dawn Kilpatrick Memorial AUSA Scholarship, soldiers who meet the above eligibility criteria must submit the following:

- Enlisted Record Brief (showing time in service remaining), official DA photograph, and copies of last two APFT and last two NCOERs.
- Supervisor's recommendation is extremely important as its content is used for the basis of the selection and is used for AUSA publicity of the scholarship and the Soldier. Supervisors should include how the NCO nominee best exemplifies the Army's vision, care for Soldiers and works toward shaping our future leaders. The recommendation will address the NCO's leadership traits to include: responsibility, initiative, adaptability, competence and dependability.
- A separate statement that soldier meets Army height and weight standards and is not pending unfavorable actions is required from the supervisor.
- Endorsement letter from the first CMF 46 Sergeant Major in the applicant's chain of command is highly encouraged.
- A 1,000 word essay on the future of Army Public Affairs and how the NCO can impact it, is required from the nominee.

Submit the nomination packet to Office of the Chief of Public Affairs, ATTN: SGM Dawn Kilpatrick Memorial AUSA Scholarship, 1500 Army Pentagon, Washington, D.C. 20310-1500. For application questions, or to submit packet digitally, contact SFC Robert Couture at (703) 697-7590 or robert.a.couture.mil@mail.mil.
